

Supplementary Figure S3: Time-depth data for the 24 wells used in the study. Fitting a second-order polynomial trend-line through the cumulative data, and extrapolating it downwards, allows us to define seismic velocities at any depth.