Link to the data

The link is mentioned in the text, Chapter 2, first paragraph:

The existing station list of NGOS (Poutanen et al., 2005) was taken as the starting point. The link to database is on the NKG web pages (<http://www.nkg.fi> → NKG Data Banks). The station list database is also available as a clickable map interface behind this link and for each station a page with station information and links to relevant databases was created.
