

Interactive comment on “The sensitivity of GNSS measurements in Fennoscandia to distinct three-dimensional upper-mantle structures” by H. Steffen and P. Wu

P. Wu

ppwu@hku.hk

Received and published: 5 February 2014

Sorry, may be I missed something, but I don't think the "erfc Error function" is linear because it involves an exponential and a squared quantity. Also, kappa is a constant, not a variable for both the differential equation and in the erfc solution.

Interactive comment on Solid Earth Discuss., 5, 2389, 2013.

C970