Dear Editor; Thank you for recommendations in order to improve the manuscript. The recommendations are corrected as below: 1- The title is shortened as “Geochemical mass-balance applied to the study of weathering and evolution of soils” 2- Before the purpose a sentence is added to highlight the relevance of the study pedogenesis and soils as an open system. 3- Objectives were given as main and second in the final paragraph of the introduction. 4- In Figure 1, the map is colored and corrected as recommended. Such as space between Mediterranean Sea, Black Sea and boards of the Turkey’s map

All the corrections are shown with red.
