Interactive comment on "Desertification in Forest, Range and Desert Landuses of Tehran Province, Under the Impact of Climate Change" by Hadi Eskandari Dameneh et al.

Hadi Eskandari Dameneh et al.

hakhosravi@ut.ac.ir

Dear Refree#1 in Chief, My Paper has been revised based on your comments. You can see the revised parts with different color. Best Regards Hassan Khosravi Response to comments: The introduction section needs to be rewritten being focused on the relevant aspect of the topic presented here, — The introduction has be rewritten. Some paragraph has been deleted and some new paragraph has been added.

The study area section needs to be rewritten. More information to easily follow the research is needed. — The study area section needs to be rewritten.

The methods used are valid however more work is needed to clearly outline it. — The methodology has been revised and some new works have been added to introduction.

The manuscript needs to be reviewed by an English native speaker — It has been revised by a person familiar with English grammar. Also if you think I can request a English native speaker to revised paper.

More information about management is necessary. —In Iran, the organization under the Ministry of Agriculture is responsible to preserve, protect and develop the natural resources. The name of organization has changes to Forest, Rangeland and Watershed. The main tasks of this organization is divided into the following main groups: • Protection of state-owned land and property rights on land • Forestry and afforestation and conservation of forests in the country including humid forests and other forests scattered across the country and encourage people to agriculture wood • Soil conservation and erosion control measures along with measures to correct and prevent the development of pasture and desert areas. Abstract must be improved. —Abstract has been revised

Please also note the supplement to this comment:
http://www.solid-earth-discuss.net/se-2016-28/se-2016-28-AC1-supplement.pdf