Dear professor Ola Fredin! Thank You very much for comments and remarks. We will improve our manuscript according to comments, namely: 1. English language will be improved in terms of grammar and spelling 2. The figures, including stratigraphic columns will be reworked and updated according to comments. 3. Paper will be amended by figures, additional review of literature and extended map of the glacial geomorphic forms. 4. New radiocarbon data with meticulous interpretation will be added to the manuscript text. Some additional aspects of formation of glacial sediments will be added. 5. Methods description will be actualized with use of additional sources
